"For the Word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Rev 1:9)

Vol. 10 No. 20

LORD'S DAY 14 MAY 2006

Dear Readers,

FORGIVENESS (Ephesians 4:25-32)

Forgiveness is a great theme in the Bible. It follows God's attribute of mercy towards the sinner. God is offended by man's disobedience and rebellion. God is rightly angry and can justly mete out punishment. Instead He calls for sinners everywhere to repent. He promises forgiveness to the penitent sinner. David writes a Psalm on this very topic. Ps 103:2, 3 "Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases."

We have a forgiving God. But forgiveness is contingent on repentance. 1 Jn 1:9 "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (Memory verse). When Adam and Eve sinned through disobedience they did not confess their sin in repentance. Instead they resort to blaming someone else. Adam said, "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat." He was in effect blaming God.

Companion to forgiving is forgetting. When God forgives, He also promises to forget. Isa 43:25 "I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins." Forgetting is an assurance that God has forgiven. Ps 103:12 "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." He assured the woman who was caught in adultery of His forgiveness. Jn 8:11 "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more." The evidence and assurance of forgiveness is seen therefore in our resolve not to sin that sin any more. 1 Jn 2:1 "If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous."

FORGIVENESS BY CHRIST

A SPEAK THE TRUTH vv25-27

The Church is a place for the truth. Yet the local Church is made up of sinners, though saved by grace. Thus we need consciously to put away lying. If we regard the brethren as members of the same body of Christ then our relationship is to be built upon truth. Rom 12:10 "Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another." The basis of truth is for all, neighbour and also the brethren in the same household of faith. Truth is spoken in love. Eph 4:15.

The Christian needs to know how to handle anger as much as he needs to tell the truth. We need to seek Christ's forgiveness for anger and lying. The devil is a liar. He tempts us to be angry, after all Jesus was angry at the temple when He overthrew the money changers there. Jn 2:17 "His disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up." Confess and cease your anger so that you do not allow the devil to control your thoughts and your emotions.

B MINISTER GRACE vv28-30

Stealing is a sin. Modern society has opened many avenues for stealing. Some large corporations get away with this sin with honourable excuses. The decalogue calls this sin coveteousness. The prophet Malachi charged Israel for the sin of robbery. Mal 3:8 “Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.” Our tithe belongs to God. We must dutifully pay it. Christian giving is a means of grace.

Our conversation must also minister grace to our hearers. If we say that we love Jesus, then our words must commend our Lord and Master. We glorify God with our lips. Ps 50:23 “Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.” The Holy Spirit indwells in the lives of Christians. The Spirit is grieved when we sin with our words.

C FORGIVE ONE ANOTHER vv31, 32

Can a born again Christian be malicious? Malice is shown in one or more of its products: bitterness, wrath, anger, quarrelsome and evil speaking. Malice is the work of the devil. Satan wanted to ascend to the throne of God. Isa 15:14 “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.” Christians fall into this sin when their minds are filled with pride and a desire for power and sometimes within the local Church.

On the contrary, when God has forgiven us of our sins, for Christ’s sake, our only option is to inculcate the quality of kindness. 1 Cor 13:4 “Charity suffereth long, and is kind; chairity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.” Love is kind. Love forgives. Our assurance of forgiveness is in the love of God. 1 Jn 4:18 “There is no fear in love.”

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

1 Read Ps 103 and pick out the verses on forgiveness. How is the psalmist assured of God’s forgiveness?

2 What is the punishment for adultery? (Jn 8:5). How did Jesus assure the sinful woman of His forgiveness? (Jn 8:11)

3 How can lying and anger be overcome by the Christian? (v25, 26). How can you put away lying, speak truth and cease from anger?

4 How can our conversation minister grace to our hearers? Give some examples how we may commend Jesus Christ to our friends.

5 God forgives us for Christ sake. How can we forgive our brother who has offended us? (Mt 18:21, 22).

The Christian's Daily Remembrancer

"They shall be mine, saith the Lord of Hosts" Malachi 3:17

"IN THAT DAY WHEN I MAKE UP MY JEWELS." In that day, He will gather you as His own. This is the promise to them who fear the Lord and think upon His name; who fear to offend Him because they love Him; who desire above all things to obey Him, to be conformed unto Him, and to glorify Him; who think upon His name, call Him Father, and believe Him to be gracious, merciful, long-suffering, abundant in goodness, and truth; who approach him as children; who walk before Him, desiring to do everything as under His eye; who are jealous of His honour, and concerned for His glory; who speak of His goodness, talk of His power, and adore the riches of His grace. "They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts." He will treat them as His children, prize them as His jewels, and acknowledge them before assembled angels. He will put a difference between them and others, and will manifest Himself unto them as He does not unto the world. Beloved, are we entitled to claim this precious promise? Do we fear God? Are we grieved at sin, because it dishonours Him? Do we think upon His name with love and reverence? If so, He will spare us, preserve us, and place us among His jewels for ever. We shall be His for eternal years.

Hail, sacred day! that shall declare

The jewels of the Son of God;

Designed to deck His crown they were

Chosen of old, and bought with blood.

~~~~~
Not for ourselves the light of grace

Didst Thou on us bestow;

But for the world's benighted race,

In darkness here below:

They candlesticks Thy churches are,

They truth and goodness to declare.

MORNING

1 KINGS 1:39 "And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon."

OIL was the symbol of the Holy Spirit. The meaning of the ceremony was that men anointed the young king with divine grace, setting him part as king, gifting him for service. God anoints every one of us, as we wait at His feet in consecration, giving us His Holy Spirit to fit us for His work.

It is related of a Russian prince that he was in Paris, having for his companions certain rich young men who passed their time in reveling. One night they were feasting, and in the midst of their revels a sealed message was handed to the Russian prince. He opened it and read it, and then rising, he said to his companions, "I am emperor now." He then turned away and left them, separating himself forever from his past unworthy life.

When we are called to any duty we should break with whatever in our past has been unworthy. The call to holy service should be a call to noble living.

EVENING

GOD'S STRANGE SCHOOLS

NO books, no universities, can teach us the divine art of sympathy. We must be sorely tempted ourselves before we can understand what others suffer in their temptations. We must have sorrow ourselves in some form before we can be real and true comforters of others in their times of sorrow. We must walk through the deep valley ourselves before we can be guides to others in the same shadowy vales. We must feel the strain and carry the burden and endure the struggle ourselves, and then we can be touched with the feeling of sympathy or can give help to others in life's sore stress and poignant need. So we see one compensation of suffering: it fits us for being in a larger sense helpers of others.
