THE LORD IS IN HIS HOLY TEMPLE

The Lord is in His holy temple,
The Lord is in His holy temple:
Let all the earth keep silence,
Let all the earth keep silence before Him -
Keep silence, keep silence before Him. Amen.

DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav’nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

THE LORD BLESS YOU

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord lift His countenance upon you,
and give you peace, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you, be gracious,
The Lord be gracious, gracious unto you. Amen.

BIBLICAL SABBATH – PART 2

Last week, we had a word study of sabbaths. Today, we are going to consider a singular Sabbath both in the Old and New Testaments. Again, as I mentioned before, Sabbath and Lord's Day will be interchangeably used in this article.

First, not all occurrences of Sabbath in the Bible refers to the weekly Sabbath, which is the seventh day of the week. For example, Leviticus 16:31 says, "It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever." The Day of Atonement is considered to be a sabbath of rest. This day falls on the tenth of the seventh month, not necessarily on the weekly sabbath. However, the observance of this day is no different from the weekly Sabbath day regulations, upon which there are some more stipulations added to the day. It may widen the applications of the Sabbath concept. The notion of Sabbath must be bigger than the seventh day of a week. A Sabbath rest may be wider than just one day a week for worship.

Second, Sabbath is considered as a day of rest. This notion of Sabbath is very common and also biblical. However, when we desire to know the meaning of rest on the Sabbath day, we are confused and do not have a very clear idea. In general, the most common impression people have is that the Lord's Day is supposed to be very dull because nothing is supposed to be exciting on that day but everybody must rest all day long. People are expected to spend the day as slow as it can be, and sleeping appears to be the best option for the day. Let us find some meanings of rest on the Lord's Day. (1) It is a day of rest unto the Lord. Exodus 16:23 says, "And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning." Exodus 35:2 also says, "Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death." What we can see from these verses is that the Sabbath rest is a rest to the Lord. Whatever the meaning of "rest to the Lord" is, it must indicate that this rest is primarily not to us but to God. Therefore, this rest is fundamentally God-ward and spiritual and not about sleep and boredom. (2) It is also a day of rest to the people. Leviticus 23:32 says, "It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate your sabbath." This Sabbath is of the Day of Atonement. It is worth noting that, though it is said of a Sabbath of rest, there is no thought of rest in terms of doing nothing. The Sabbath keepers here are expected to afflict their souls, which probably refers to fasting. And also, the last portion of the verse says of celebrating the Sabbath. Therefore, the sabbatical rest does not refer to any sense of laziness for the day. (3) A sabbatical rest implies a cessation from regular work for financial benefits or seeking pleasures in things other than the things of God. Exodus 16:25 also says, "And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field." Working in the field was forbidden. Exodus 20:10, "But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates." Jeremiah 17:24 says, "And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein" (cf. verses 21, 22, 27). In particular, no business transactions are allowed on this day. Nehemiah 10:31, "And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we..."

would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.” If a person longs for the quick passing of the Sabbath day because of his desire to resume his business, he is not doing well. Amos 8:5, “Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?”

Third, Sabbath days must be observed with the right attitude. Isaiah 58:13, “If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words.” (1) We do not spend the Lord’s Day with pleasure seeking activities. (2) We call the Lord’s Day a delight. (3) We honor the Day of the Lord. (4) By observing the Lord’s Day honorably, we may honor the Lord. (5) We neither do our own ways nor speak out own words (speaking idely).

Fourth, Sabbath day is holy. (1) God blessed and hallowed the Sabbath. Exodus 20:11, “For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.” (2) Sabbath day is holy. Exodus 31:14, “Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.” Exodus 35:2, “Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death.” Deuteronomy 5:12, “Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.” Nehemiah 9:14, “And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant.”

Fifth, Sabbath can be defiled. The holiness attached to the Sabbath day implies that it can be defiled, if we do not carefully observe it. Isaiah 56:2, “Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.” Isaiah 56:6, “Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant.” Polluting also can be understood as desecrating or profaning.

Sixth, there are some things that defile, profane, or pollute the Sabbath day. (1) Selling and buying things on the Sabbath day desecrates the sabbath day. Nehemiah 13:15-17, “In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. <sup>16</sup> There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?” (2) Working on the Sabbath day desecrates the Sabbath day. Jeremiah 17:21-22, “Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; <sup>22</sup> Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.” (3) Heartless and only ritualistic Sabbath day observance defiles the Sabbath. Isaiah 1:13, “Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.”

Lovingly,

Your Pastor

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 25
Q: How doth Christ execute the office of a priest? A: Christ executeth the office of a priest, in his once offering up of himself A SACRIFICE, to satisfy Divine justice, and reconcile us to God; and in making continual intercession for us. Comments: The duties of a priest were to offer sacrifices and pray for the people; and this is what Christ, as our priest, does for us. When he was here on earth, he offered himself as a sacrifice, and now that he is in heaven, he intercedes for us with his Father. We are here told, likewise, that the purposes for which Christ offered himself as a sacrifice were: 1. To satisfy the justice of God on account of our sin; and 2. To bring us back to God as dear children. Proofs: Hebrews 4:14, Hebrews 9:28, Colossian 1:20, Hebrews 7:25
