FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART.....

A Father's Letter - Part 1

I found an excellent letter written by a father to his children in May, 1685 from a book, Isaac Watts: Remembered 1674-1748, written by David Fountain (Mayflower Christian Bookshop, Southampton, UK, 1998). This letter was inspirational and moved my heart so much so that I wanted to let my church family read it. I wrote to the publisher and asked for permission to use it for this page, and the manager Teresa Mitchell graciously gave me permission to use it. I hope that you will enjoy reading it. This letter is found in "Influence of Home and School: 1685-1690," chapter 2.

Isaac Watts is probably the most well known English hymn writer, besides John Wesley. His father, Isaac Watts Sr. was a faithful man of God who did not join the Church of England but became a non-conformist. He was persecuted and put into jail. He refused to conform to the laws of England relating to the worship of God. He was willing to pay the price for his faithfulness to the Lord and faith in Him, and his faithful wife often came to the place where he was imprisoned with a baby he had not yet seen. Though he could not see his son's face, the baby's crying gave him pleasure. Isaac Watts Jr. loved to read books. He received his early education from his father, including the study of Latin at 4 years of age. He recorded some of his life in his memoranda as following:

"Coincidents:	Began to learn Latin of my father,	1678
	To Latin School and writing,	1680
	Began to learn Greek,	1683 or before
	I had ye small pox,	1683
	Learnt French,	1684, 1685
	Learnt Hebrew,	1687 or 8
1683,	My father persecuted and imprisoned for nonconformity six months. After that forced to leave his family and live privately in London for two years."

The following letter was written by Isaac Watts Sr. to his children while he was forced to live in London. I trust that the readers will be blessed by reading it. This letter both challenged and encouraged me as a Christian father. For sure, this letter made me ashamed of myself in many ways. This article carries only half of the length of his letter, and the rest will be continued next week.

"My dear children,

Though it hath pleased the only wise God to suffer the malice of ungodly men, the enemies of Jesus Christ (and my enemies for His sake), to break out so far against me, as to remove me from you in my personal habitation, thereby at once bereaving me of the comfort, which I might have hoped for in the enjoyment of my family in peace, and you of that education, which my love as a father and duty as a parent required me to give; yet such are the longings of my soul for your good and prosperity, especially in spiritual concerns, that I remember you always with myself in my daily prayers addressed to the throne of grace. Though I cannot speak to you, yet I pray for you; and do hope that my God will hear me, and in due time bring me to live again amongst you, if He shall see such a mercy fit to be bestowed on me or you. However, we must endeavour by patient waiting to submit to His will without murmuring; and not to think amiss of His chastening us, knowing that all His works are the products of His infinite wisdom, His designs are the advancement of His own glory; and His ends towards His people their sanctification and salvation, which certainly shall be accomplished at last, however His great providences may seem contrary to it, as to our apprehensions. My dear children, since in this my absence from you, it is the desire of one of you, that is, my eldest son, (Isaac Watts, junior), to have a line of counsel from his father.

First, I charge you frequently to read the Holy Scriptures; and that not as a task or burden laid on you, but get your hearts to delight in them: there are the only pleasant histories which are certainly true, and greatly profitable; there are abundance of precious promises made to sinners, such as you are by nature; there are sweet invitations and counsels of God and Christ, to come in and lay hold of them; there are the choice heavenly sayings and sermons of the Son of God, the blessed prophets and apostles. Above all books and writings account the Bible the best, read it most, and lay up the truths of it in your hearts: therein is revealed the whole will of God, for the rule of man's faith and obedience, which he must believe and do to be holy here and happy hereafter. Let all the knowledge and learning you attain by other books, both at school and at home, be improved as servants to help you the better to understand God's word. The sum of all the counsel I can give you, necessary for the regulating of your behaviour towards God and man, in every station, place and condition of your lives, is contained in that blessed word of God."

Lovingly,

Your Pastor
