Church Theme 2013 – “Understand and know God” – Jeremiah 9:24

EXPRESSIONS OF OUR DEVOTION TO CHRIST

By Rev Jack Sin, pastor of Maranatha Bible-Presbyterian Church, Singapore. Adapted from Maranatha Messenger dated 19th August 2012

Christians are to be committed to the Lordship of Christ in our lives. Our dedication to the Lord is not just words but actions too. Here are 8 practical ways of demonstrating our love to Christ.

1. Malachi 3:16 says, 'Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.' We should contemplate about Christ often. We would want to ponder and think often of the person we love. We remember their names, likes and dislikes their views or convictions and we would normally agree with Him all the time in the day. Absence makes the heart grow fonder and therefore they will often be present in our thoughts. Is it the same of the true Christian and his master, our Lord Christ who ought to be in our minds every moment of the day. We are constantly reminded of our risen Saviour and will often think favourably of Him and meditate, memorise His inspired word.

2. Romans 10:17 says, 'So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.' We will listen to His word preached with rapt attention. You will delight in listening to the person you love, you will call him or her often to hear his or her voice and we are interested in his or her well-being on your handphone (i.e. as we would do in our courtship days). We will be attentive when others talk about Him and teaching His commandments. Our own hearts will be excited at the sound of His name. This is possible between the true Christian and Christ. The true Christian delights to hear anything about his Master. He loves the messages and devotions that remind him of Christ and His life, atoning death, victorious resurrection and imminent second coming. Psalm 119:97 says, 'O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.'

3. Jeremiah 15:16 says, 'Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.' How do we treat the word of God? We like to read His word and relish it. It is a joy to receive a SMS or email or face book photos of a dear friend or a letter from a loved one. Those who love the writer cherish every letter which he writes. They carry it about with them as a treasure. They read His word over and over again and meditate and memorise it as well. Well, it is so between the true Christian and Christ! The true Christian love to read, study, delve and cherish the word of God.

4. 1 Corinthians 10:31 says, 'Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.' We glorify and please Him. We want to seek the opinion and views of our loved one to do the things which they like. We will be willing to even deny ourselves if it is what they dislike and do all things to give them the honour or joy. The true Christian studies hard or work hard to please Him, by being set apart or consecrated for Christ. He will be committed and devoted to Christ and do His work to glorify Him and magnify His name. Colossians 3:23 says, 'And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.'

5. Hebrews 10:24-25 says, 'And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.' If we love a person, we will be close to him as a respectful comrade. We will want to spend time with Christ our Lord in devotion and holy worship. We are naturally interested in fellowship and communion with this person and the people who he loves. We know this and we are not strangers but very close companions. There is a bond of love and unity between our Lord and us. The true Christian regards all Christ's servants and children as his own friends, and will cherish and treasure their companionship often together in Christian fellowship.

6. Exodus 20:7 says, 'Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.' Honour and revere His name and not take it in vain. We like to hear Him and we will defend His name and His teachings if necessary where others abuse or misuse it. We will want to further His interests and goals. The true Christian regard with a godly jealousy all efforts to disparage his Master's word, or name, and they will be responded to appropriately. That is why we would want to defend our precious Christian faith and the cause of Christ before the unbelieving world when challenged.

7. Philippians 4:6, 7 says, 'Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.' We will love to communicate with Him and pray often. How do we treat private and corporate prayer? We will tell Him all our thoughts, and pour out all our hearts to Him. We will love meaningful and in depth supplications together. It is easy to talk to a much loved friend and we are never be at a loss for words with so much to ask or share. The true Christian loves to commune and seek the Lord in petitions and prayers and finds no difficulty in seeking His Saviour for His will and guidance. Psalm 5:3 says, 'My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.'

8. Christians are to be devoted to Christ our Lord and to dwell and live in His presence and power and think about Christ and read His word and rely on Him and His word and walk in His ways. We want to engage in daily communion with Christ, our Lord. The true Christian longs for that blessed day when he will face his Master with joy and be received into His holy presence forever. That is the best thing to do with and for our Lord while we have yet breath on earth.
