Church Theme 2013 – “Understand and know God” – Jeremiah 9:24

My Dear Reader,

IT'S ONLY A MATTER OF TIME

27-10-2013 When I wrote last week, I was fully anticipating that our time last Lord's Day would be a special time of welcoming the Kis back to their ministry here at New Life. Well we did that, but not in the way we all anticipated. It was a joyful welcome, but accompanied with the news that they were being required to depart to their port of origin this week. Sunday evening, Pastor Ki asked me, "Did you ever think I would be leaving London before you?" Actually, no I had never thought that would be possible. Even this week, I have prayed that the Lord would intervene so that the immigration difficulties would be resolved before they had to depart. But that reminds us that all of these things happen by the higher hand of God's providence. Not one detail of this caught our Lord by surprise.

In Psalm 31, David, the psalmist and king of Israel wrote of his trust in the LORD:

vv. 1-3 In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness. Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me. For thou are my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

Reading those words from our 21st century context, we may wonder what he was really facing. We are not really told what the circumstances were. We do know that something was threatening him because he requested deliverance. In the midst of his circumstances, he committed his very life source to the LORD as noted in verse 5:

Into thy hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

I say "life source" because Genesis 2:7 speaks of God having breathed into Adam's nostrils the breath of life and he became alive (a living soul). Again in Ecclesiastes 12:7 we are reminded: Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. Though a powerful king, David was very aware that he was dependent on the Lord, his Maker or he could not survive, let alone go forward in the things he had been called to accomplish in life. He had to carry on in the face of tremendous issues.

We are told in verse 13 that people were slandering him, that fear was surrounding him, and that plans were being crafted by those who wanted to end his life – and there had been many persons and attempts. Faced with such threatening circumstances, what would he do? We are told in verses 14-16, he continued to turn to the LORD:

*But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou are my God. My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake....

Let those words echo in your mind and heart. The only one who ultimately governs our time is the LORD. We make our plans, set our schedules, and attempt to do the things we believe the Lord has put before us to do. But we must always remember that He has the ultimate veto power to our plans. But you may ask, why would He permit things to happen as He does? Please remember what Jesus taught in His earthly ministry, God is a good Father to you who are His children (cf. Luke 12:28). One writer said: "Surprise and serendipity are on the heart of God for His children, if we understood that better, we would have planned better."

To you as a congregation, look to the Lord and do not give way to fear. Jesus is our Chief Shepherd. He continues to walk with you. Keep your eyes on Him. In His time He will provide you with a faithful under-shepherd to pastor and care for you. Either He will sort things out for Pastor and Mrs. Ki to return, or He will provide another couple or family to serve with you. In the meantime, I appeal to you first, to pray! Pray for the Lord to provide you with the right pastor in His time. Then, continue to keep the Word of God primary. Finally, continue to care for one another. Encourage the task force. If someone is absent, let them know you missed them. You can phone them, send them a text, an email, a note, or even visit them. Welcome strangers to come and worship our God with you.

Speaking of time, my time with you is quickly concluding. While I am eager to return to my family, this has been a precious time to be in the UK. I cherish the opportunities the Lord has given us to worship and serve together. Thank you for your love and hospitality expressed to my family and me in so many ways. - Gratefully yours, CTM

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 94

Q: What is Baptism?

A: Baptism is a sacrament, wherein the washing with water – in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost – doth signify and seal our ingrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the Covenant of Grace, and our engagement to be the Lord's.

Comments:

The outward act in baptism is washing with water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. The inward meaning of this is the removal of our sin. We are all by nature born in sin, and we need to be born again before we can be admitted into heaven. Now, Baptism is an emblem of this new birth. And the baptismal fountain of water tells of another fountain, which is filled with the blood of Jesus Christ, and which has been opened freely for all sins and uncleanness.
