ATTRIBUTES OF AN EFFECTIVE TEACHER OF THE WORD

Adapted from Maranatha Messenger - 27th September 2015

Introduction

Besides the expository preaching from the pulpit by the pastor which is central to the doctrinal edifying of the flock, Christian teachers of the Bible (i.e. elders and deacons) have a proper place and special burden to teach effectively God's Word in the Sunday School (or CED), fellowships and NBCs so that students will grow in their faith in Christ. We must develop and build up strong moral character and knowledge of the word in our teachers. Teachers must incorporate relevant spiritual factors into lesson-planning for effective Bible learning. Consider the important characteristics of a God honouring teacher.

1. A Love or Concern for God and for their Students

A genuine passion for Christ and a strong desire to teach and to build up others is another key element. Patience, clarity of mind, good oral skills, tact and a certain level of intelligence are advantages in teaching. Paul said of himself in 1 Thessalonians 2:8–9, “So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.”

2. A Profound Working Knowledge of the Scriptures

What you do not have, you cannot give. The teacher must first of all, know more than the students and this requires serious scrutiny and diligent research into the Word by him or her first. By way of illustration you cannot have a professor teaching in the University when he or she has not even got a basic degree in the first place. 2 Timothy 2:15 says, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” A working practical understanding of the Word is paramount for the effective didactic work of a godly teacher.

3. Thoroughness in Lesson Preparation and Presentation

There must be systematic, logical and properly researched and considered notes (or Powerpoint presentation or the use of good Christian books recommended) for the class and clear communication of the lessons to be taught. We learn better when there is a careful and rational approach and it aids understanding and memory. Teachers are to be creative and take great pains to think and painstakingly prepare your lesson / message (and use mnemonics or alliterations, if necessary) for both young and old.

4. A Personal Interest in the Wellbeing of your Students

There will be a sacrifice of time and energy and talent in the nurturing of students. They require more than head knowledge but a sincere and caring regard for their spiritual and physical welfare. Are you aware when some of them are absent or sick or if they have a problem at home or maybe they have backslid or are living in sin? Take time for meaningful interaction with them. Will you call up those absent or visit the sick and encourage the downcast? Proverbs 27:23 says, “Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.”

5. Spiritual Zeal and Vitality

Interest and fervency in the teacher begets the same in the students. If you are a lethargic and nonchalant teacher, do not expect ardent and eager students in the class. Spiritual zeal is contagious as others will be zealously affected by your love of the word of God and the opposite is also true. Jesus spoke to the two disciples along Emmaus road and they said that their hearts burned when they heard the Scriptures expounded by Christ (Luke 24:32) and we should emulate Christ and try to do the same today in our teaching as He leads and guides us.

6. Patient and Approachable

The fruit of the Spirit in Galatians 5:22–23 is “love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.” We are to show gentleness, longsuffering, temperance and a sense of love and joy in our teaching and relationship with our students. Generally, students respond to loving and gentle counsel and a sincere and caring approach rather than a harsh or punitive one all the time.

7. Firmness and a Good Management of the Class

On the balance, there should be proper management of the classroom with clear rules set and discipline enforced if necessary. That is to say, firmness and readiness to maintain order, peace and a conducive undisturbed learning environment. If any violate that, he or she should be held accountable and dealt with accordingly (yet with gentleness and to give an opportunity for change for those who are sincerely repentant).

8. A Godly Life of Exemplary Conduct and Discipline

Nothing fits the teacher of the Word than a real doer or practitioner of the Word himself. 1 Timothy 4:12 says, “Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity,” Philippians 4:9, “Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you,” and James 1:22, “But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” Your students will learn more from your demeanour, testimony and life than from your words and lessons. The best gift you can give another is a worthy example. God who sent a scribe for the post exilic revival in Ezra 7:10 speaks of seek, do and teach as the proper order of things Your personal speech and action speak louder than your classroom teaching. Be careful as teachers are being watched by others all the time, and you can either be a stepping stone to others or a stumbling block to your students.

Remember what Paul says in 2 Corinthians 3:2–3,

“Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.”

Conclusion

Thank God for our CED, fellowships, NBCs, JWS and Nursery teachers. Faithful and caring Christian teachers are a scarcity today and we need to nurture and build up godly character and the effective skills of our teachers in the word of God to support the educational arm of the church to the edifying of the members in the most holy faith.

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 95

Q: To whom is Baptism to be administered?

A: Baptism is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible Church – till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to him; but the infants of such as are members of the visible church are to be baptized.

Comments:

We are here taught the persons who may be baptized. They consist of two classes – adults who are Christians, but who may not have been already baptized; and the infants of church members. The former are baptized because the meaning of the ordinance is to declare that the persons baptized profess themselves to be Christians; and the latter are baptized because the promises of God to his people extend to their children as well as to themselves.

Acts 2:41, Acts 2:39
