The Lord Bless You

* Congregation Stands

THE LORD IS IN HIS HOLY TEMPLE

The Lord is in His holy temple,
The Lord is in His holy temple:
Let all the earth keep silence,
Let all the earth keep silence before Him -
Keep silence, keep silence before Him. Amen.

DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heav’nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

THE LORD BLESS YOU

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord lift His countenance upon you,
and give you peace, and give you peace;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you,
And be gracious unto you, be gracious,
The Lord be gracious, gracious unto you. Amen.

5 VITAL AREAS OF CHRISTIAN FOCUS IN 2016

Adapted from Maranatha Messenger - 10th January 2016

Introduction

Devotion to God and His Glory

Matthew 22:37 says, 'Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.' Our first and foremost commitment is the glory of God and our consecration to Christ. It can be manifested in the priorities we set for ourselves in our work, family or personal lives for 2016. Resolve in our hearts that the new year will be one that will seek to honour God in our lives in faithful daily QT, Sabbath worship and personal evangelism and not be too engrossed in our secular work, studies or leisure and family that it overwhelms us and we forget our eternal goals and our primary aim in life.

Diligence in Studying and Applying the Word of God

2 Timothy 2:15 says, 'Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.' The entire Christian life is governed by a book and it is the very inspired word of God, the very bedrock of our faith and the manual of our Christian living. Imagine that you are a manager of a corporate firm and they have a corporate philosophy and it is written in the corporate manual or guide book but you are not aware of it. When you err in your work one day, you were corrected by someone of your ignorance. It would be embarrassing. But yet, is it not true that we are often unaware of the many commandments and teachings of God. Is it in the area of systematic study of the word, prayer or service that we need to be diligent? Join the ERBL and be grounded in the word. Something to think about it.

Discipline with Ourselves

Proverbs 12:24 says, 'The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.' A disciple is a very discipline follower of his master to that extent that he obeys and keep all his rules and instruction dutifully, like soldiers in the Lord's army. We need to cultivate a personal stringent regime when we make a conscious effort to improve ourselves. For example, it could be discipline in Sabbath worship and coming on time, and discipline in missions or outreach or personal and corporate prayer. We are fighting a war and that requires a minimum level of alertness, physical fitness and spiritual discipline as well. Less sleep, more effective use of time and less entertainment of world, distractions and seductions and more intercession and meditation of the word.

Determination in Responsible Stewardship and Service

1 Peter 4:10-11 says, 'As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.' We are saved to serve and as stewards of the manifold grace of God, we have sacred duties to fulfill. Be willing to be involved in at least one area of service in the church (Sunday School, missions, Neighbourhood Bible Classes, fellowships, Chinese service, Maranatha Resource Ministry or missions etc.) in 2016. That requires gumption and hard work to fulfil our duties and serve Him with our God given gifts and talents. We need to consciously develop and deploy our God given abilities and use it to advance God's kingdom this year and be fervent and faithful in this commitment to fulfill the will of God concerning us. Be committed to Christ thru the local church.

Deterrence against Sin (and Distractions)

Psalm 1:1-3 says, 'Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.' We are in a battle field daily, fighting against the temptation of the flesh and spirit that wars against the soul. Salvation will try to draw us away from holiness and sanctification but we must fight back and persevere on for 1 Thessalonians 4:3 says, 'For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication.' We need to set up a strong and reliable deterrence against sinful habits and practices in our lives (i.e. anger, covetousness, immorality, laziness, pride, hatred, jealousy etc.). Colossians 3:5-6 says, 'Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.' If there any habitual or besetting sin or distractions, we need to beware of in the new year? Do I need to cut down on the use of HP games or texting or internet or leisure or sleep or even food ? Is there anything to confess and repent of as we entered into the year right with God? 2 Timothy 2:20-22 says, 'But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.'

Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.' Let us be alert and vigilant against the wiles of the evil one and stand up to it without failing, relying on the strength of the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God.

Conclusion

Hebrews 12:1-2 say, 'Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.' A good beginning is half done. As we have began 2016 with the Lord, we want to have the right priorities or resolutions and the proper focus and that is pleasing before the Lord. Ephesians 4:1 says, 'I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,' Let us prayerfully seek the Lord's holy will and strength to persevere with this God honouring goals. Do it as a family or with someone who can check on us if necessary to guide and counsel us along life's pilgrim way.

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 104

Q: What do we pray for in the Fourth Petition?

A: In the Fourth Petition – (which is, GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD) – we pray, That of God's free gift we may receive a competent portion of the good things of this life, and enjoy his blessing with them.

Comments:

We now come to the petitions concerning ourselves – the order of the prayer being God first, and ourselves afterwards. In this petition we pray for the supply of our bodily wants. We ask for two things – a sufficient portion for the day, and God's blessing with it.
