AN EMPHASIS ON FERVENT PRAYER IN PERILOUS TIMES

Adapted from Maranatha Messenger, Sunday 7th August 2016

Introduction

There are many fine examples of godly prayer warriors in the Bible in both the Old Testament and New Testament. One of the illustrious examples is none other than the prophet, Elijah, the great prophet of old who defeated the false Baal prophets at Mt Carmel (1 Kings 18). He prayed for rain and it came and when he prayed for it to stop, it did. God answers prayers and He uses His servants and their petitions to bring things to pass on His divine will. Prayer is a means of grace and a great privilege for believers to be able to connect and commune with God with adoration, confession, thanksgiving and petitions. Hebrews 4:16 says, "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." Mark 1:35 speaks of our Lord's habit in prayer every morning with God the Father before he even begins the day (Daniel 6:10, Psalm 5:3).

James advised us, 'Is any among you afflicted? let him pray ('; direct us to seek for the intercessions of ministers and elders in the church and all Christians are to pray one for another in obedience in God's will (James 5:13, 14).

The great advantage and efficacy of prayer are noted here : "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16) whether he prays for himself or for others: witness the example of Elias, v17, 18. Notice the three words: effectual, fervent and righteous. God honours a godly man's prayer. He who prays must be a righteous man with Christ's righteousness imputed on us; (not righteous in an absolute sense) not loving nor approving of any known iniquity.

The prayer of the upright is God's delight. And the merciful Father is nigh to all who call upon Him. The prayers of the saints should be a zealous and persistent one. It must be a pouring out of the soul to God with importunity and it must come from true faith in God. Such prayer, God will honour and will answer and it will be pleasing and acceptable to God. It is important to know that our prayers are to be brought to the presence of God in heaven (Revelation 5:9). We should strive to be humble and right with God first, in order to be effectual in prayer. The power of prayer is seen in Elijah's ministry. This may be encouraging to us even in common cases, if we consider that Elijah was a man like us with strengths and weaknesses. He was a gifted and capable servant of God (James 5:16) but he had his infirmities and was subject to weakness in his passions like us. There are much struggles and testings in the life of the servant of God (i.e. he nearly wanted to give up and die under great depression). In prayer, we do not look to the merit of man, but to the sovereign mercy and grace of God alone. We should learn from Elijah how he prayed earnestly depending on God alone and emulate Him. Matthew 21:22 says, 'And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.'

It is not enough to say a prayer superficially (i.e. making sure that we mean it when we say grace before food meaningfully) but must intercede importunately in our prayers and learn to pray as a family as well with your children. Make it a Godly habit daily and see their lives changed by the Lord. Our thoughts must be fixed, our desires firm and ardent. When we thus pray together in one spirit in prayer as Paul in Romans 15:30 says, “Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me.” Elijah prayed that it might not rain and God heard him in his pleading against an idolatrous persecuting country, so that it rained not on the earth for the space of 3½ years (1 King 19:1-4). Again he prayed three times and the heaven gave rain. Prayer can be the key which opens and shuts heaven as God wills. This should not be seen as a magic formula in prayer as taught by Bruce Wilkerson in his book on the Prayer of Jabez (read the sound booklet written by Spurgeon on the same theme instead). This instance of the extraordinary efficacy of prayer is recorded for encouragement even to ordinary Christians to be instant and earnest in prayer. If Elijah by prayer could do such great and wonderful things, surely this should encourage more prayers from us to the same God today. Where there may not be supernatural signs in God’s answering our prayers, yet there must be much dependence on His sovereign grace when we ask according to His will. 1 John 5:14-15 says, “And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.”

The breath of godliness is prayer. We should also strive to pray fervently with faith and perseverance and reach out to others with the gospel and as the Lord leads, to save souls from eternal death! When was the last time you gave a gospel tract or shared the gospel with someone or invite someone to church? Bring someone to the quarterly MBPC gospel Sunday or the evening Chinese Service. That may just save someone from eternal condemnation as the Lord wills.

Conclusion

The emphasis of our church includes practical Christian living based on the Word of God and the important aspect of persevering effectual prayer for one another and the need for gospel outreach in the conversion of souls in these last days.

Let us strive to come for the church Wednesday night prayer meeting and meet with others to intercede for God’s people. Let us live a godly life of faith, doing works pleasing to God and a life of gospel witness and fruitful and faithful stewardship for the Lord each day till He comes (which may be sooner than we think, in these perilous times of international conflict, terrorism, unrest and impending wars, widespread deception and pestilences) (Romans 14:13).

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 28

Q: Wherein consisteth Christ's exaltation?

A: Christ's exaltation consisteth in his rising again from the dead on the third day, in ascending up into heaven, in SITTING AT THE RIGHT HAND OF GOD the Father, and in coming to judge the world at the last day.

Comments:

Exaltation means a rising from meanness to greatness. Christ's exaltation consists in the following particulars: 1. In rising from the dead; 2. In ascending up into heaven; 3. In sitting at God's right hand; 4. In being appointed to judge the world. This is the state in which our Saviour is now.

Matthew 28:6, Mark 16:19, Matthew 25:31-32
