GETTING OUR HEARTS RIGHT BEFORE GOD

Adapted from Maranatha Messenger, Sunday 13th November 2016

Introduction

1 Timothy 1:5 says, 'Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:' Heart disease is a serious concern among many and a top killer in Singapore and in the world but a greater spiritual concern is not just the failure of a physical pumping heart but our spiritual hearts before God. Consider how we may develop good cardiac discipline in our walk of faith :

1) Start with a Regenerate Heart (Ezekiel 36:26). It is not the heart with which a person is born, but another heart put in them by the Holy Spirit. It is a heart which has new tastes, joys, sorrows, desires, hopes, fears, likes and dislikes. It has a biblical views about the soul, sin, God, Christ, salvation, the Bible, prayer, heaven, hell, the world, and holiness. We need a major spiritual makeover in our lives. Paul says "Old things are passed away. Behold all things are become new" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

2) Get it BROKEN for the Right Cause (Psalm 51:17). Our hearts have to be humbled and broken from all our arrogance, conceit, and self-righteousness. Its former high thoughts of self and the world are to be removed and replaced with lofty thoughts of God instead. It thinks itself guilty, unworthy, and corrupt. Its former rebellion, anger, and malice have to be put away. We must not think lightly of offending the just and holy God. The heart is tender, and keen on avoiding sin (2 Kings 22:19). It has to be sanctified and separated and set right with God and men as well.

3) A Heart of Faith and Trust in the Right Person (Romans 10:10; Ephesians 3:17). It rests all its hopes of pardon and eternal life on Christ's vicarious atonement, Christ's mediation, and Christ's intercession for our sins and not on anything else. It is sprinkled in Christ's blood from an evil conscience (Hebrews 10:22). It turns to Christ for help always. It depends on Christ for daily peace, mercy, and sovereign grace of God. It sees in Christ the only source of all its needs and requirements. It leans, depends, builds and cleaves to Him, as our Saviour Lord and God.

4) A Cleansed and Sanctified Heart (Acts 15:9; Matthew 5:8). A cleansed heart loves holiness, and loathes sin. It strives daily to cleanse itself from all filthiness of flesh and spirit (2 Corinthians 7:1). It abhors that which is evil, and cleaves to that which is good. It delights in the Word of God, and has that law engraved on it, that it may not forget it (Psalm 119:11). It longs to obey the Word more, and takes pleasure in those who love the law of God. It fears and loves God and His covenant people. Its affections are set on things above (Matthew 6:33). It is most holy; and it looks forward to heaven with joy, as the place where perfect holiness will at length be attained.

5) An Intercessory Heart of Profound Prayers. 2 Corinthians 1:11 says, 'Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.' Its daily feeling is, "Early in the morning thou shall hear my voice" (Psalm 5:3). It is drawn by a habitual inclination to speak to God about spiritual things. It is necessary to pour out itself before God, as before a friend, and to spread before Him all its needs and desires. It tells Him all its inner heart desires. It is the possessor of a right heart with zealous intercessory praying for others before the throne of God.

6) A Heart with a Good Conscience (Galatians 5:17). It finds within itself two opposing principles contending with each other: the flesh lusting against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh. It knows by experience what Paul means when he says, "I see a law in my members warring against the law of my mind" (Romans 7:23). The wrong or compromised heart knows nothing of the strife against sin. The right heart may be known by its spiritual warfare against sin, and yet the overwhelming peace of God and with God.

7) A Genuine and Truthful Heart (Luke 8:15; 1 Chronicles 12:33; Hebrews 10:22). A true heart will have nothing to do with falsehood, hypocrisy, or deception. It is genuine and transparent before God and men. It really is what it professes to be, in all its thoughts and actions. Its faith is growing. Its obedience is slowly enhanced. The right heart has a biblical religion that is true and sincere.

Conclusion

Matthew 6:21 says, 'For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.' A regenerate and consecrated heart is to be the possession of all true Christians and it is to be a sound right heart. Some have fallen, for a season, like David, Samson and Peter but their hearts have never entirely departed from the Lord. They are proven people with infirmities but their hearts have been right in the sight of God. They will delight in God and in the world to come. All that have had right hearts upon earth, will find that they have a pure heart when they enter into the everlasting rest above with God one day.

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 42

Q: What is the sum of the Ten Commandments?

A: The sum of the Ten Commandments is, TO LOVE THE LORD OUR GOD, with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our strength, and with all our mind; and OUR NEIGHBOUR as ourselves.

Comments:

The whole of God's commands to us are here summed up in one word – LOVE. The man who with his whole soul loves God and his neighbour, fulfils the law. Neighbour here means not merely one who lives near us, but, as Christ teaches us (Luke 10), whoever holds kindred with us, or is a man.
