THE CROSS OF CHRIST

Adapted from New Life BP Church Singapore Weekly, Sunday 2nd April 2017

“But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.” Galatians 6:14

Introduction:

We are approaching the Holy week, and will be commemorating our Lord’s suffering and sacrifice on the cross within two weeks’ time. At this juncture, what do we think and feel about the cross of Christ? What does it mean to us? The Apostle Paul bans and would not want to boast his outward carnal privileges, and indeed he chose not to glory in anything. He meant to declare strongly, that he trusted in nothing but “Jesus Christ crucified” for the pardon of his sins and the salvation of his soul. Let others, if they would, look elsewhere for salvation; let others, if they were so disposed, trust in other things for pardon and peace—for his part the apostle was determined to rest on nothing, lean on nothing, build his hope on nothing, place confidence in nothing, boast in nothing, “except in the cross of Jesus Christ.”

Thus, we are called to understand that the Cross of Christ is place where we must boast and trust in on this earthly life. There are three basic things that made him to boast on the Cross of Christ. Let us see them below one by one. Let us listen to St Paul in Galatians 6:14, what does he have to say about the Cross of Christ?

1. The Cross of Christ – The Plan of God (Gen 3:15; Isaiah 53):

First of all, the cross of Christ is the Plan of God for the redemption of mankind from eternity. The historical event of Christ’s death by crucifixion has eternal significance because of the identity of the one who was crucified. Jesus Christ, God’s Son, had become incarnated as a man, and “came to give His life a ransom for many” (Matt. 20:28; Mark 10:45; I Tim. 2:6). This plan of God was made before the fall of mankind by all-knowing God. (Gen 3:15; Isaiah 53:6, 10). At the cross, God achieved three things: 1) The salvation of sinners; 2) The revelation of himself and 3) The conquest of evil. Hence, the Cross of Christ reveals to me and gives me that great assurance that God loved me from the eternity. I am in the centre of God’s plan.

2. The Cross of Christ – The Purpose of God (1 Cor. 15:3-4; Acts 17:2-3):

Secondly, the Cross of Christ and His death as a part of God’s divine purpose is the centrepiece of the gospel. In His death on the cross, Jesus was taking the death consequence of sin for all mankind. This He could do in that He was the sinless Saviour ratifying a consequential spiritual solidarity with the whole human race. The first man Adam, when he sinned all men died spiritually (Rom. 5:12), were constituted “sinners” spiritually (Roman. 5:19), and were condemned (Rom. 5:18) to everlasting death. God had originally told Adam in the garden, “In the day that you eat thereof” from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, “dying you shall die” (Genesis 2:17). “The consequence of sin was death in its various spiritual, psychological and physical forms” (James A. Fowler, The Cross of Christ)<sup>1</sup>. Therefore, God had a redemptive plan for the purpose to redeem the fallen mankind from the eternal damnation. Thus, the Cross of Christ reveals to me that it is the purpose of God to reconcile me to Him by forgiving my sins and giving me the hope of resurrection. We must cling to the old rugged cross. We must see the centrality of the cross in the life of Christian to boast.

3. The Cross of Christ – The Power of God (1 Cor. 1:18-26):

It is the power of God – This may either mean that the gospel is called “the power of God,” because it is the medium through which God applies his power in the salvation of sinners; or, the gospel changed the condition of fallen man, and is effectual in renewing him and sanctifying him and yet, that its reception by the human mind depends on the promised presence of the Holy Spirit (Albert Barnes’ Notes on the Bible). Thus, “the death of Jesus comprises the divine dynamic of the life of Christ in the Christian. Christians who are “being saved” from the dysfunction of fallen humanity receive that divine dynamic power in order to function as God intended” (James A. Fowler, The Cross of Christ). So, it is mere power of crucified Christ alone. Consequently, the Cross of Christ reveals me that on this earth fruitfully.

Conclusion:

Therefore, the Cross of Christ is the central theme of the whole Bible in short. If there is no cross, there is no Christianity. The Cross of Christ is the unique and important teaching and faith which differentiates us from others. The Cross of Christ is the symbol of love and sacrifice to all the born-again believers. God demonstrated His love for the mankind on the cross by sending His Son Jesus Christ to die, on behalf of us. The atoning death of Christ on the Cross provides redemption to sinners like us and makes us children of God, gives the promise of the eternal life in Christ. That’s why for Paul stresses that “For me it is not to glory, except in the cross of Christ.” as we are commemorating Holy Week, shall we follow St Paul and boast ourselves in nothing but the cross of Christ in our life.
