GODLY DIRECTION FOR 2018

Adapted from Maranatha Messenger, Sunday 14th January 2018

Introduction

It is the beginning of the year and we should prayerfully have some biblical directions for 2018. Paul in Acts 20:24 says, 'But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.' Consider the following:

1. That we would know and would love Christ more: It is a heartfelt prayer that our eyes would see Christ's love in new and fresh ways and respond gratefully in greater devotion to Him and conformed to him . We will spend eternity searching the depths of Christ's love for us, and we need to strive to know him and then make him known. Demonstrate your life to others with the glorious gospel of Christ.

2. That we would cherish and obey God's Word: 2 Timothy 2:15 says, 'Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.' It is God's Inspired Word that brings eternal life and sustains life. It is His infallible Word that we need to read, study, meditate and memorise daily. Let us pray this year for hearts to be disciplined to seek God's Word. Make a conscious effort daily to cherish, read, study and apply the Word of God in your lives.

3. That we would seek and put Christ first : Matthew 6:33 says, 'But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.' We need to have the right priorities, give our hearts to glorify Him and to obey Him. Let us pray for right priorities (i.e. not just work) this year for hearts to love Christ above all else. Let us pray for hearts that will be dissatisfied with the world of sin and pray that we would desire the satisfying joy and peace that comes through the pre-eminence of Christ in our lives.

4. That we will remove all the idols from our heart: Recently, a famous K-pop star committed suicide and died. Beware of the things we bow down to in our heart, that we love more than Christ, these are called idols: wealth, fame, pleasure, ambition, possessions, computer or hand phone games and obsession with our career. These are all possible idols that crowd our hearts. Pray that God would reveal to you the idols that you need to remove and put Christ in their place. Be set free from this bondage or slavery of the evil one and resolve to honour Christ as Lord and God.

5. That we would desire holiness and the fear of God: 1 Peter 1:16 says, 'Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.' Martin Luther described the Christian life as one of growth in progressive sanctification. As long as we live in this sin-stained world, we will continue to be tempted by the evil one by God who is faithful to preserve us each time if we turn to him (1cor 10:13) . Let us pray for hearts to be set apart, consecrated and sanctified by God. May we readily turn to the cross and Christ and His pardoning grace in our lives.

6. That we would think more of eternity: This year, let us pray that we would spend less time consumed with ourselves and worldly interest, cares and work, and more time thinking about commitment, loving and serving God to the extension of His Kingdom, His work and His will. Matthew 6:21 says, 'For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.'

7. That we share the gospel of Christ wherever we are: Romans 1:16 says, 'For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.' The Gospel is to be shared to all in different stations of life. Gospel witness, outreach and missions are what Christ has for us to do, to speak of His saving grace, and the Cross of Christ that saves us if we believe in Him.

8. That we would worship and serve the Lord more fervently: To love God requires us to want to worship Him in spirit and truth. We need to pray that we would have desire to keep the Sabbath, exalt and worship Christ. Pray for a fervent desire that seeks to serve Christ with sacrifices. The Apostle Paul said that in Romans 12:11, 'Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;' This year, may we focus on the headship of Christ and may it motivate us to zealously devote our lives more and adore Him with reverence and reach out to save souls as He call us.

9. That we will live each day, conscious of His soon coming: In Psalm 39, David prayed, 'LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is: that I may know how frail I am.' (vs.4). Our lives are short and we should not waste our limited time. May we be wise and use every precious moment for God's glory and honour and purpose and to advance His Kingdom for He is coming soon. Walk wisely and number your days.

10. That we will prayerfully seek out the will of God for our lives: Praying that God's will be done in our lives requires us to constantly seek and obey Him in the first place. There are many decision we need to make this year May we submit all our aims and desires to discover and do God's will, trusting that His sovereign will is the best for us. Psalm 37:4 says, 'Delight thyself also in the Lord: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.'

SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 102

Q: What do we pray for in the Second Petition?

A: In the Second Petition – (which is, THY KINGDOM COME) – we pray, That Satan's kingdom may be destroyed; and that the kingdom of Grace may be advanced, ourselves and others brought into it, and kept in it, and that the kingdom of Glory may be hastened.

Comments:

A Kingdom means a people who are ruled by a king. Now, there are three kingdoms mentioned here: the kingdom of Satan, or those who obey Satan; the kingdom of Grace, or those who obey God; and the kingdom of Glory, or those who will reign with Christ in glory. In this petition we ask that the first of these be destroyed, that the second may prosper, and that the time of the third may speedily arrive.
