SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 5

Q: Are there more Gods than one?

A: There is but one only, the living and true God.

Comments:

We are here taught that there is only one God; and this one God is the source of all life, and the only true object of worship.

Isaiah 45:5

THE BUILDING OF THE CHRISTIAN CHARACTER

Success in life depends not on our position but our disposition. The character of a person is paramount above all other things. What will you be looking for in a Christian as your role model? Is it physical appearance, a good job, high educational qualifications, a wealthy background or a godly disposition?

Below is a true historical account taken from Grace & Truth Magazine to underscore the importance of a good character:

Known in China as the Wall of Ten Thousand Li (a Li being one-third of a mile), the Great Wall snakes its way over 1500 miles through the mountainous northern provinces of China. Overall, the wall is at least 25 feet high, with 40-foot high guard towers placed approximately 300 yards apart. In some places, the foundation is as deep as the wall is high. The wall is 25 feet wide at its base and 15 feet wide at the top to form a paved roadway for military horsemen. [It is the only human construction visible from the moon.]

It took hundreds of years to connect all the sections of the wall which were built between AD 200 and AD 600. Once completed, the Chinese people rested because they thought they were safest of all peoples. After all, wouldn't you feel safe living behind The Great Wall of China, whose gates were guarded and whose towers were manned?

But to their surprise, this supposedly insurmountable protective barrier was penetrated three times in less than 100 years! And the invasions were devastating! How did the nomadic Tartar invaders get in? Not by attacking the wall at all, but simply by bribing the gatekeepers!

The Chinese had invested much time, effort and ingenuity in building The Great Wall, but neglected to build up the good character of those who kept its gates. You'd think they would have learned their lesson after the first invasion! Obviously they didn't.

The Apostle Peter gives us an understanding of the traits a believer should cultivate and nurture in his or her life in 2 Peter 1:5–8:

And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul supplements it with a list of attributes in Colossians 3:12–14:

Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

We are to put on these as if we are putting on clothes every day for work. Change your wardrobe to these attributes and wear them everyday. The next common and well-read list is taken from Galatians 5:22–23, commonly called the fruit of the spirit, “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.”

Put together these three lists (and others) to give a comprehensive picture of the spiritual make-up of a Christian. How do we fare if we compare ourselves to it? Let these be a spiritual checklist for us to examine ourselves daily and strive to be the person God wants us to be. A good heart is better than a good face or a good head. A good character is more important than any ostensible physical beauty, intellectual knowledge or scholastic accolades. It is our attitude not just our aptitude that determines our altitude in life. Think about it!
