WESTMINSTER SHORTER CATECHISM QUESTION 8

Q: How doth God execute his decrees?

A: God executeth his decrees in the works of creation and providence.

Comments:

We have been told what God is; we now begin to learn what he has done. We are here told that he created all things, and still sustains them, and that in creation and providence we see God executing his own decrees.

Scriptural Reference:

Revelation 4:11, Daniel 4:35

Dear brethren, starting this week, Elder Foong Kon Yu will be authoring the main article in our church bulletin. These articles have been specially prepared for our edification, and we hope they will be a source of encouragement and growth.

Do what is right

Proverbs 21:3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

What is righteousness and what is justice? We define righteousness as living morally upright in accordance with God's standard. This is not to say that we live a perfect life as we are unable to achieve perfection. We are sinners and thus fall into sin but we try to consciously be honest in our daily life style. We spend our resources wisely no matter how much we have (or have not). We treat others fairly and show compassion in our daily dealings with others or in our deeds. We draw nigh to God and worship Him.

The standard definition of this world for richness is monetary wealth and for some it is health. You will live happily ever after when you have both wealth and health. Really? Yes, but you may live happily for a very short period. You are afraid that you will lose either of your wealth or health and have to spend time to guard them. Eventually you will age and thus you will be unable to utilize your wealth. Someone would have to manage it for you. Health will inevitably deteriorate with age. This is reality of life. What next? Notice that you are neither in control of whatever you have. Both your wealth and health elude you. Then it hit on you that these 2 verses become a reality. Psalm 90:10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. 1 Timothy 6:7 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

Is there an alternative to happy living? Yes, there is! Our final destination is not on the planet earth but rather that we will dwell in Heaven. God promises a place in Heaven because Jesus died for sinners. You will be Heaven bound when you fulfill the condition to accept Jesus as our Saviour. We are thankful that Jesus gave all believers the opportunity to dwell with Him in Heaven forever.

As humans it is difficult to see that life on earth is but temporal. Living by sight seems easier than living by faith. Unless we live by faith, we continue to live as though we will dwell here forever despite that scripture tells us that we do not. It is common knowledge to all that we our human life will end sooner than we think. It was only like yesterday that I first started schooling. In a time that I can hardly imagine, I am now in my 70s. Many of my friends are no longer around. Remember Psalm 90:10. Time passes faster than we perceive. It is natural that all of us will die one day. And then! Ensure that you have booked your place in Heaven. There is no other way to Heaven but through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Be grateful and live in obedience to His Word. God is not fooled by outward appearances. He is far more pleased when you actively practice kindness, defend the vulnerable, and...

live with integrity than when you just go through the motions of worship. God desires a changed heart and practical, loving actions over empty religious traditions. Live a righteous life in accordance with God's word. This is the right way! God help us to do what is right in thy sight.

The Believer's Daily Remembrancer – 7th June

(written by Rev James Smith)

"I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God." Isaiah 43:12

WE are to witness to the truth, power, and sweetness of religion; to the goodness, holiness, and faithfulness of God. We are to witness to the world, by our spirit, testimony, and conduct; we are to witness to poor, doubting, fearful souls. Our witness should be unequivocal, and should be borne with courage, constancy, and love. Our testimony should be from experience. Do we know the Lord? Do we daily experience the power of truth in our hearts? Does it free us from slavish fear, the love of the world, and the dominion of sin? Can we say, we have known and believed the love which God hath to us — God is love? Are we saying to those around us, "Oh, TASTE and see that the Lord is good; there is no want to them that fear Him?" Suppose we should be called to bear witness before judges and kings; in the prison or at the stake; how would it be with us then? Could we witness that God is good and gracious; that He is enough to make us happy; if He were to strip us as He did Job, or try us as He did Paul? He says, "YE ARE MY WITNESSES."

*Give me to bear Thy easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray;
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to Thy glorious day!
I would Thy daily witness be,
And prove that I am one with Thee.*
